

SHE FOR HER – III Programme

Today Rachakonda CP- Sri Mahesh M. Bhagwat, IPS, Launched SHE FOR HER 3 rd Session at Infosys campus, Pocharam, Ghatkesar and 250 SHE FOR HER Volunteers girls actively participated.

Rachakonda Police SHE Teams is taking up a new initiative called “SHE FOR HER” in the limits of Rachakonda to create a safer environment for girl students inside the college too. Public places are already taken care by SHE teams by their decoy operation create a safer environment. But still the girl students from colleges are not coming forward to reach police when they are becoming victims of Eve-teasing. To overcome this, two senior girl students are selected from each college and they are undergoing the orientation training and empowered with awareness of Laws & Acts for Crime Against Women. Then they are nominated as “SHE FOR HER” volunteer for the college, so that any girl from the college can approach police through them. SHE FOR HER student volunteer acting as a bridge between police & students. They are helping other students with the information of how they can approach law enforcement.

This program first time launched in the Rachakonda Commissionerate on 06-07-2017 at IICT Auditorium ,Nacharam and has successfully been running in all colleges in the Rachakonda Commissionerate.
