

PRESS NOTE

SHE FOR HER programme for College girls to act as volunteer on women empowerment conducted as a part of International women's day celebrations 2020. This programme was organised by Rachakonda Police & security council under Hyderabad safe city project banner at Guru Nanak Institution Ibrahimpatnam.

Today in part of International women's day celebrations - 2020 the SHE for HER programme was organised at Gurunanak institutions. For this celebrations Smt Smitha Sabarwal IAS., Special secretary to CM of telanagana was attended as Chief guest.

SHE for HER is a Brain child of Sri Mahesh M Bhagwat, IPS, Commissioner of Police, Rachakonda. This initiative called "SHE FOR HER" launched in the limits of Rachakonda commissinerare to create a safer environment for girl students inside the colleges too. Public places are already taken care by SHE teams by their decoy operation create a safer environment. The fundamental of this concept is two senior girl students can be selected from each college and they will be undergone the orientation training and empowered with awareness of Laws & Acts for Crime Against Women. Then they will be nominated as "SHE FOR HER" for the college, so that any girl from the college can approach police through this SHE FOR HER student who will act as a bridge between police & students. They can help other students with the information of how they can reach police. SHE for HER volunteers are supporting SHE TEAMS for the women safety and actively responding to problems as she for her and taking help from Rachakonda Police through dedicated whatsapp groups.

CP-Rachakonda Mahesh Bhagwat IPS addressed all the volunteers about their responsibilities as volunteer and explained about women Laws and appealed to them that if any crime against women if they noticed then they can take the help SHE teams Rachakonda on Whatsapp no 9490617111 or dial 100 which is available 24x7. He also said that in Rachakonda area one lakh ten thousand cameras installed and being monitored by police to ensure women safety. There will not be She without He as He is part of She so equal responsibility of male to protect and respect women CP said. 'Gender equality theme of Beijing declaration completed 25 years so on 8th March international women's day generation equality is theme' CP said. He apealled youth to marry without dowry.

Chief guest Smt. Smitha sabarwal IAS Special secretary to CM of telanagana addressed the gathering and explained the students to aim high goals and reach them with hard work. Women should always be cautious about surroundings and if any problem arise immediately they should call dial 100' she said. In this celebrations a MANCH cultural team of volunteers from Infosys attended and performed street play about women safety and how to react while in critical situations.

In this programme LB Nagar DCP sri Yadagiri, smt.Sneha Misra IPS trainee , smt saleema Add.DCP, ACP yadagiri Reddy , Sri Gagan Kohli and Sri Saini from Gurunanak Institutions, Smt Savitri Mutyala Margadarshak of Rachakonda security council , 07 She teams and nearly 500 SHE for HER volunteers attended.

