

PRESS NOTE

Minister for women & Child Development,. Tribal welfare Smt Satyavati Rathod appreciated efforts of Rachakonda police in control of Crime against Women. Sensitisation to “Self Help groups” was organised as a part of International Women’s Day celebrations 2020 by Rachakonda Police & Rachakonda Security Council at Bhongir.

Today as part of the “International Women’s Day Celebrations- 2020 Sensitisation to “SELF HELP GROUPS” was organised at Jayalakshmi Yashoda Gardens Bhongir. This sensitisation programme was presided over by DCP Bhongir Narayan Reddy with Smt Satyavathi Rathod, Hon’ble minister for women and Child Welfare & ST Welfare as Chief guest. Hon’ble Minister spoke about the various programmes/schemes implemented by Hon’ble Chief Minister with regards to Women empowerment & economic development. She also spoke about the creation of “She Teams” by Hon’ble Chief Minister of Telangana. Hon’ble Minister also promised to take up the matter of Kerala Martial Art form “Kalari payattu” for training girl students in all schools & colleges of tribal welfare department for self defence.

CP-Rachakonda Sri Mahesh Bhagwat IPS addressed the attendees and spoke about rescuing 36 minors girls from traffickers in the holy town of Yadgirigutta. He also spoke about the work of “She Teams” in Rachakonda Commissionerate. “She for Her” volunteers in colleges & corporate offices to report crime against women. The role of Margadarshaks in preventing crime against women.

He also urged the SHG members to partner with police in prevention of crime. He sensitised women to Dial-100 in times of distress & forward message on WhatsApp mbl no- 9490617111.

In this programme Smt Gongidi Sunitha ,MLA Aler and Whip of Telangana State Assembly addressed the gathering & urged the SHG members to focus on self empowerment, shun discriminating girl children from boys & treat them on equal footing. She exhorted SHG members to spend at least 2 hours with their children & create friendly environmental the house, so that children could share their thoughts/feelings with children.

Dist Collector Smt Yadadri-Bhongir urges SHGs to share & express their problems rather than feeling stressed. She also spoke of Shaki counselling centre at Bhongir & asked them to seek their in case it’s needed.

The other speakers include Sri pailla Shekar reddy, MLA Bhongir, Sri Alimineti Krishna reddy, MLC, Sri Alimineti Sandeep Reddy, ZP chair person , Sri Upender reddy ,PD. , Smt Krishnveni , Dist welfare officer , Sri , Narayana reddy DCP Bhongir, Smt saleema Add.DCP She Teams, ACP Bhujangarao ,, Smt Latha, RKSC womens Forum, Smt Savitri Mutyala Margadarshak of Rachakonda security council.

About 1800 SHG members from different villages of Yadadri - Bhongir Dist attended the sensitisation programme organised from 11 am to 2 pm today at Bhongir Town. Student police cadets girls of ZPHS showcased Kerala martial art form Kalari Payattu for self defence which has been appreciated by all.

