

PRESS NOTE

Victim grievances redressal is our top priority: CP D.S. Chauhan IPS

Today CP Sri D.S. Chauhan IPS instructed the officers to take all the required security measures to keep the crime rate under control in the Yadadri Bhongir Zone during the crime review meeting held at Bhongir.

Addressing the meeting, CP said that every Police is working round the clock to keep the society peaceful. CP instructed the staff to provide prompt response to the victims and provide them quick justice. CP warned that strict action will be taken if anybody create problems to the women and senior citizens. CP also instructed the officers to conduct awareness programs about the uses of CCTVs in the villages which ultimately reduce crime rate. CP also warned that PD act will be invoked if anybody tries to involve in land grabbing cases.

CP thanked the devotees for supporting Police in Bundobast arrangements for Yadadri temple Brahmotsavaalu which were concluded on 28th Feb. CP said that all the required security arrangements have been made to conduct the Brahmotsavaalu peacefully. Since Tuesday is last day of Brahmotsavaalu large number of devotees arrived for darshan. With the impeccable security measures no untoward incident was occurred. CP commended the staff attended for bandobast arrangements.

DCP Rajesh Chandra IPS, ACP Venkat Reddy, ACP Saidulu, ACP Uday Reddy and other officers of Rachakonda were also present during the review meeting.

