

PRESS NOTE

“If you can't feed a hundred people, at least feed one” CP Mahesh M Bhagwat IPS.

CP Mahesh M Bhagwat opined that food donation is a divine thing and motivated the donors to participate actively in a free meal distribution program of Duddhara Foundation, Jawaharnagar on Monday.

Duddhara Foundation has come forward with a new initiative “Just 500”, “Feeding the lesser fortunate children a well balanced home cooked meal”, a free meal distribution program. People with a desire to join the services of the Duddhara Foundation can donate 500 rupees through the program. With the donation of 500 rupees, the organizers will feed 30 people in need.

Addressing the media CP stated that providing free food to the needy is a noble thing. He commended the Organizers of the Duddhara Foundation for the great initiative. A total of 500 nutritious meals have been distributed in the program at Vikalangula colony Jawaharnagar PS limits. The organizers of the Duddhara Foundation stated that they could help more people with the Just 500 initiative. They sought more cooperation from the donors.

