

PRESS NOTE

CP launches 2 free StanPlus powered Red ambulances sponsored by SmartIMS for non Covid-19 medical emergency conditions

Free ambulance services are available for senior citizen, pregnant women and disabled persons in non Covid-19 medical emergency

Rachakonda Commissioner Sri Mahesh M Bhagwat IPS launched free ambulance services for people in non Covid-19 medical emergencies which are provided by SmartIMS today at Rachakonda Commissionerate.

In meet with the press CP extended their wishes and support to the team of SmartIMS lead by Amar Reddy for providing free ambulance services which is a great need for persons in emergency situations. Rachakonda CP Mahesh Bhagwat stated that people in need of going to medical visits can use these services. These ambulance services are available 24/7 free of cost. People in non Covid-19 medical emergencies can approach the Rachakonda Covid control helpline number 9490617234 and Stan Plus dedicated hotline number 1800 - 121911911 to avail these services in emergency. SmartIMS associated with StanPlus Red ambulance services in providing these free services. These ambulances are fully equipped with Oxygen, ventilation and other emergency facilities. Senior citizen, pregnant women and disabled persons in non critical emergencies can utilize these services to visit hospitals, diagnostic centers, blood banks and other required places. These ambulances will be active for the next two months under Rachakonda Commissionerate region. CP also advised people to take precautions i.e., wearing of face mask, using sanitizer to protect from Covid-19.

Addl CP Sudheer Babu IPS, DCP Admin Shilpavalli SmartIMS representatives Nagesh and Prashanth, Stanplus Ambulance services in charge Shujath were also present at the launching.

