CCTVs make policing easier and provide more safety to the citizens: CP Mahesh M Bhagwat IPS

On Wednesday, an MoU has been signed by CP Sri Mahesh M Bhagwat IPS and Housila Tiwari, Managing Director, Technip FMC India at Rachakonda Police Commissionerate, Neredmet for providing 65 Community CCTV cameras under Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). All the 65 CCTV surveillance cameras would be arranged across jurisdiction of Nacharam Police Station and the project will be implemented through Technip FMC and their NGO Partner Hand-IN-Hand Company.

Addressing the media, CP appreciated the team of Technip FMC for the donation of 65 CCTV cameras worth 18 lakh rupees. CP commended their noble gesture and elaborated the significance of CCTVs in Crime detection. CP said that CCTVs play a vital role in providing more safety to the citizens, especially to the women and children. CP mentioned that numerous cases have been solved in shorter time with the help of CCTVs. CP opined that CCTVs induce fear in criminals that keep them away from committing crime. CP further opined that an industrial area, Nacharam require more CCTVs as women employees are working in shifts in the nights and stated that more CCTVs will be set up in the dark spots notified across Nacharam.

CP remembered that, Technip FMC extended their support to Rachakonda Commissionerate by providing masks and other useful things in the first and second waves of Pandemic as well. CP commended the representatives of Technip FMC and welcomed more organizations to come forward to provide more CCTVs in Rachakonda Commissionerate region.

Speaking to the media, Rakshitha K Murthy IPS., DCP Malkjgiri, stated that Technip FMC, India has stepped up in donating 65 CCTV Surveillance Cameras to Nacharam Police Station which comes under Rachakonda Jurisdiction. She stated that CCTVs play an important role in policing for providing security and better services to the citizens. She appreciated the team of Technip FMC.

Housila Tiwari, Managing Director, Technip FMC delighted for associating with Rachakonda Police. He thanked CP and expressed his willingness to assist Rachakonda Police Commissionerate in helping the society in the best possible manner.

SHO Nacharam and representatives of Technip FMC, Narendra Kumar, Finance Head, Narendra Desai HR head, Sujatha Consultant, Christopher, ACP SB Javed were also present at the occasion.
