

PRESS NOTE

“Blood Donors are Demigods”, “Volunteers should come forward to donate blood which saves many lives,” Says Mahesh M Bhagwat IPS.

Rachakonda CP calls for active participation of Blood donors.

On the occasion of World Blood Donors Day, 2021, Rachakonda Police Commissioner Sri Mahesh M Bhagwat, IPS inaugurated MEGA BLOOD DONATION Camp at Nagaram, Keesara Mandal limits of Medchal district, organized by the Rachakonda Police, in coordination with “Sri Ashtothara Shatha Chukkala Charitable Trust” and INDIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY on Monday, 14.06.2021.

Speaking to the media CP stated that the lack of sufficient blood availability has become a serious problem to the Thalassemia Patients and other needy patients since very few donors are coming forward to donate blood in the pandemic.

CP uttered that blood donation is a noble thing that glorifies humanity and termed all the blood donors as DemiGods since they save many lives. CP urged the donors to participate actively and donate blood which is mainly needed for Thalassemia and patients suffering from varied health complications. CP stated that the blood collected in the camp would be used for saving the lives of Thalassemia patients, emergency and accident victims across Telangana state. CP appreciated the blood donors and commended RKSC and appreciated Keesara Police for organizing the blood donation camp.

Kum.Rakshitha K Murthy IPS, DCP Malkajgiri, Sri. Shivakumar, Addl DCP Kushaiguda and RKSC members, were present at the Blood donation camp.
