

PRESS NOTE

"Report suspicious strangers immediately Install CCTV cameras for better security".

Rachakonda Commissioner of Police, Sudheer Babu, IPS

To strengthen safety measures and prevent crimes such as thefts, robberies, and other unlawful activities within the jurisdiction of Rachakonda Police Commissionerate, Commissioner of Police Shri Sudheer Babu, IPS, convened a special meeting today at the Rachakonda CP Office with representatives of the Welfare Association (Gated & Villa Communities) on the theme of Safety & Security.

During the meeting, the Commissioner emphasized that villa and colony residents must implement key security measures without fail. He urged the public to cooperate with the police in curbing crime and advised them to remain cautious about delivery personnel from platforms such as Swiggy, Zomato, and others. He assured: "Within six minutes of receiving a crime report, our teams will reach the spot."

Key Guidelines:

CCTV Surveillance

Install high-definition (HD) CCTV cameras at home entrances, inside premises, gates, and facing main roads.

Cameras should have night vision features.

Ensure integration of these CCTV systems with the Police Command & Control Room.

Alarm Systems

Equip doors and windows with sensor-based alarm systems.

Alarms should trigger immediately upon any suspicious movement or forced entry.

Use strong grills and reliable locks on all entry points.

Neighbourhood Cooperation

Maintain good relations with neighbours and support each other during absences from home.

Report suspicious individuals or vehicles to the police without delay.

Professional Security

Hire professional security guards if required.

Engage only trusted and reliable security service providers.

Lighting Arrangements

Ensure there are no dark, unlit areas around residences.

Use motion-sensor lighting to further strengthen security.

Social Media Caution

Do not share travel plans or extended absences from home on social media platforms.

The Commissioner stated that adherence to these measures will significantly help in preventing thefts and robberies. He appealed to residents to strictly follow the guidelines and extend full cooperation to the police.

This meeting was attended by DCP Malkajgiri Smt. Padmaja, IPS; DCP LB Nagar Shri Praveen Kumar, IPS; DCP Bhongir Shri Akshansh Yadav, IPS; DCP Maheshwaram Smt. Sunitha Reddy; DCP Crimes Shri Aravind Babu; DCP Admin Smt. Indira; SB DCP Shri G. Narasimha Reddy; along with other officers.

